PLAINVILLE RURAL HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

Lying on the peaceful prairie,
'Neath the azure blue.
Lies a quiet, modest city with it's School house new .

Sing it's praises, swell the chorus
Red and white are known.
Hail to thee our treasured high school
Plainville High's our own.

Cardinal

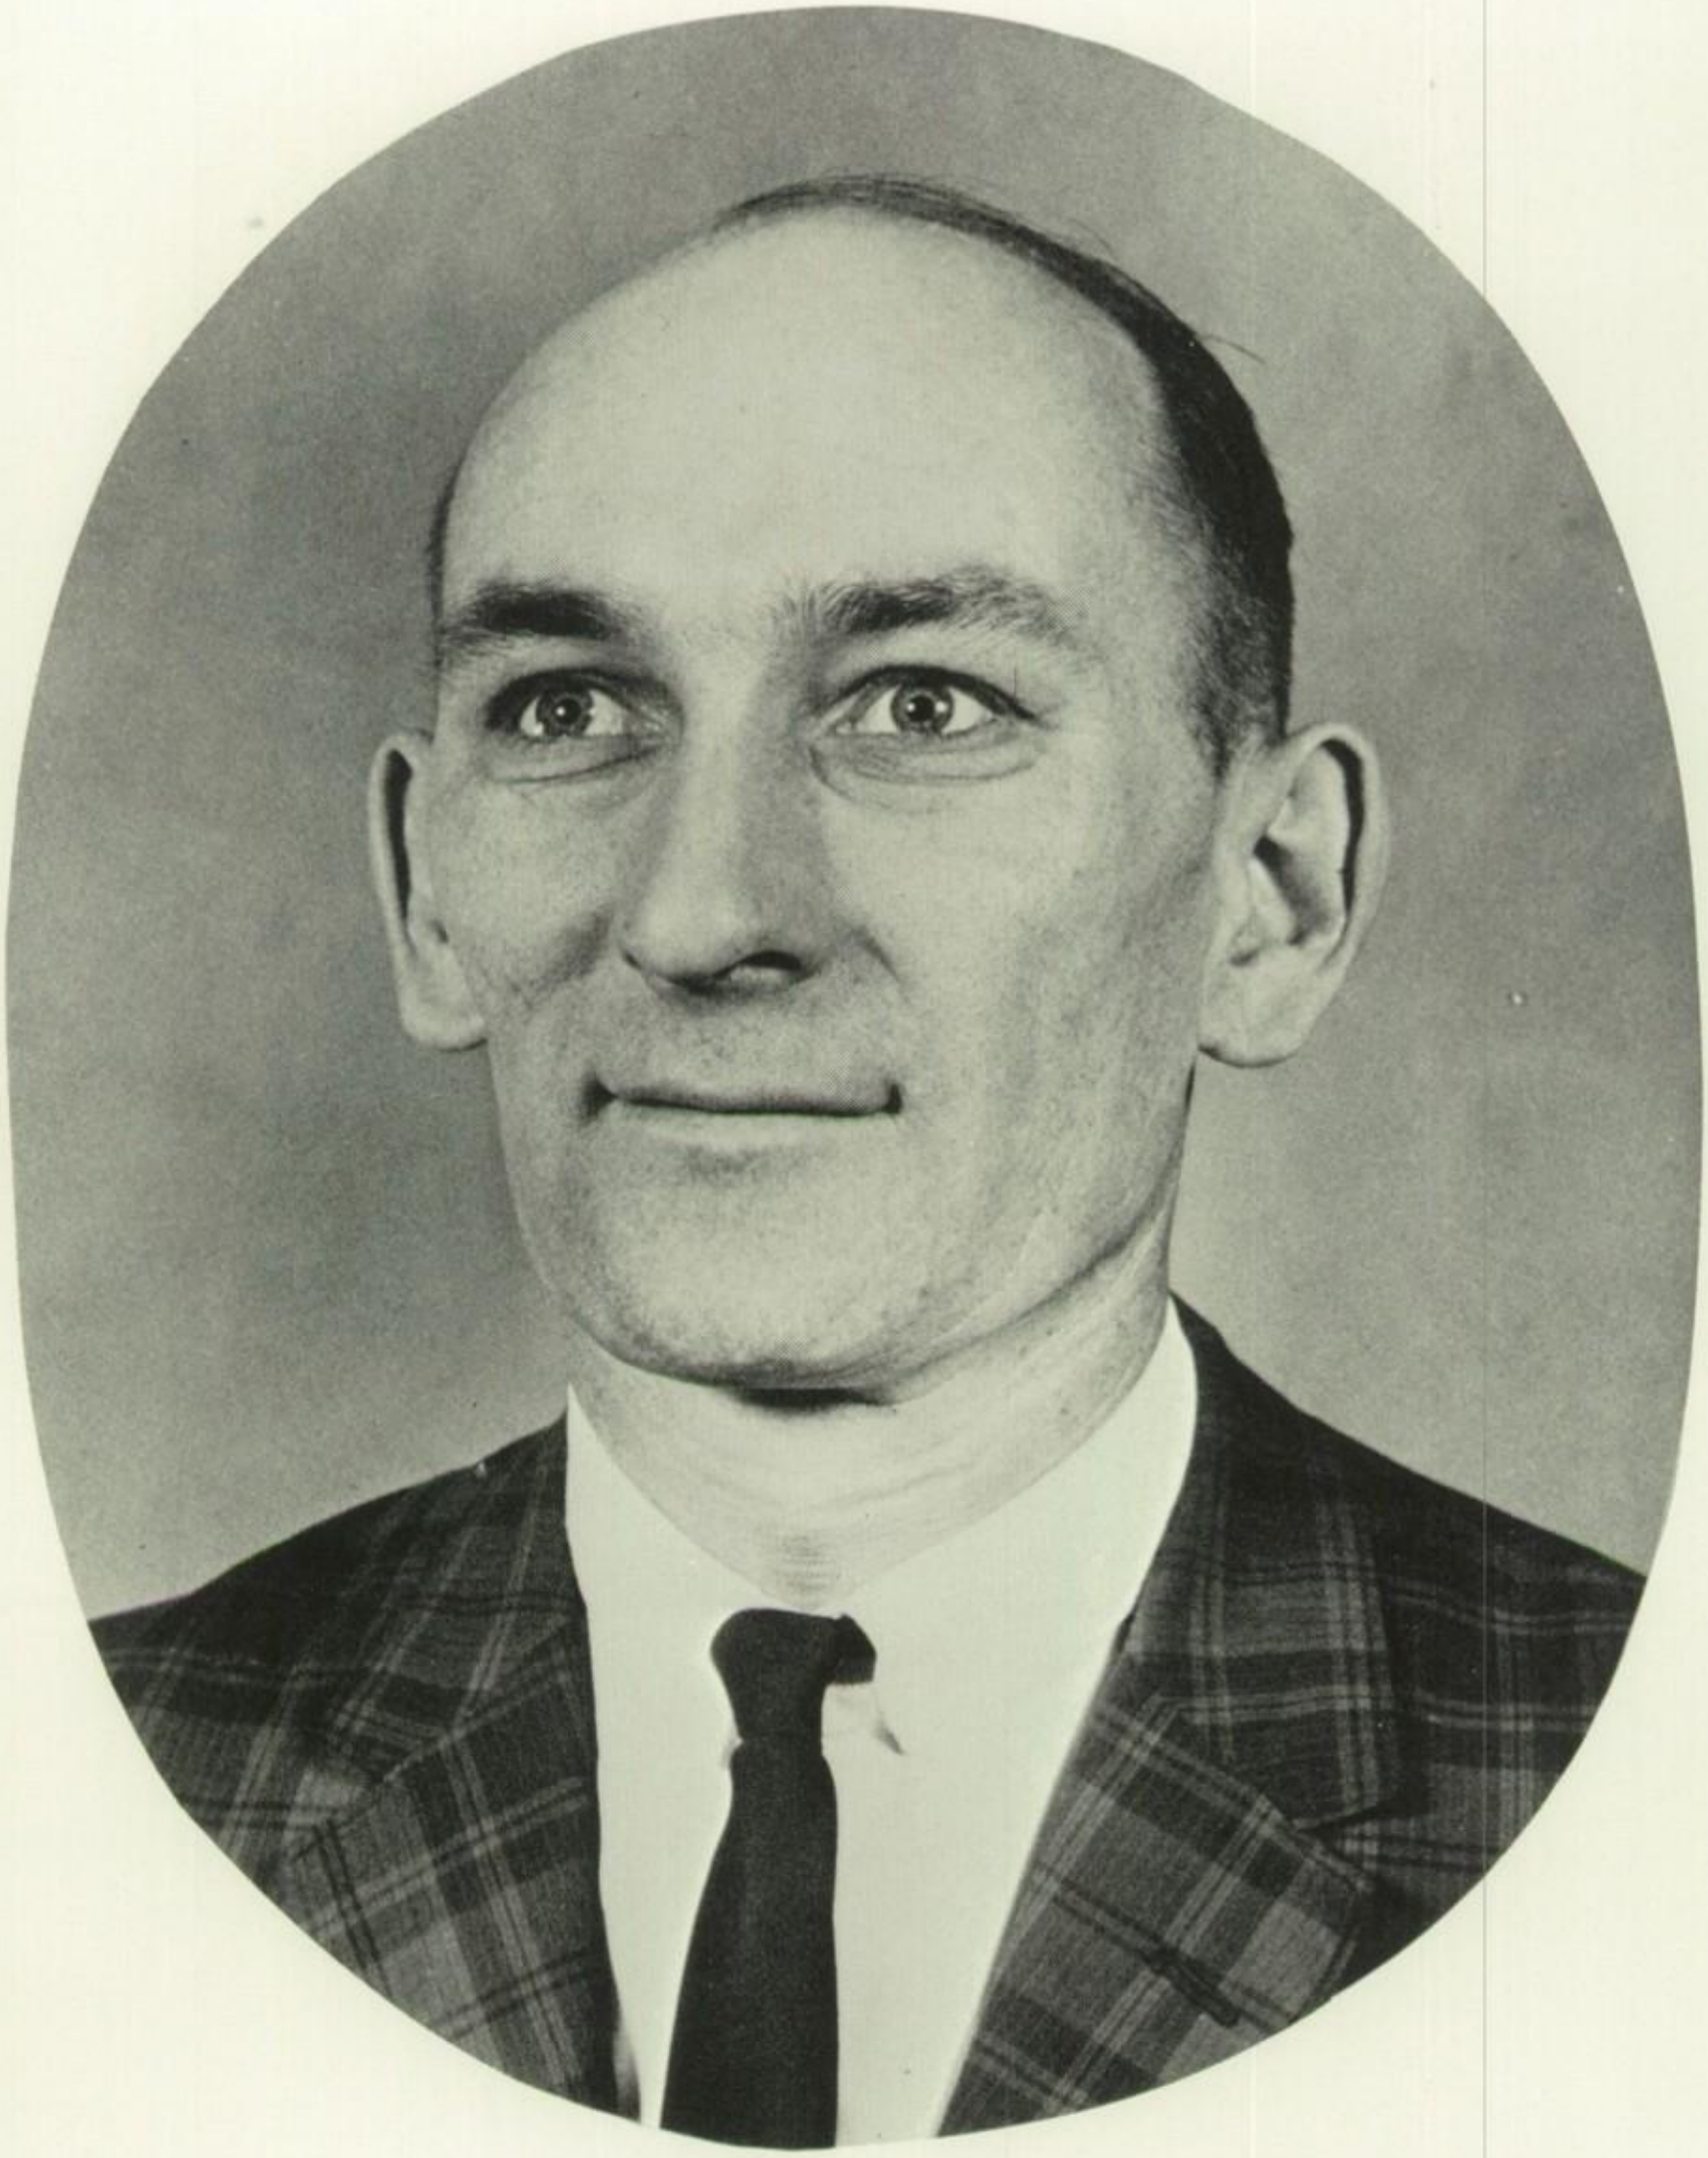
1964

Foreword

The 1964 Cardinal represents an effort to portray, both pictorially and editorially, many of the activities, personalities, and accomplishments which have marked the 1963-1964 school year.

Late this spring, another class leaves our school at commencement. PRHS, like its newly graduated Seniors, will be entering a new era. At this time, when it is imperative to look to the future, let us also be mindful of our past.

We hope that you will find the 1964 Cardinal not only a source of handy information, but also a tangible momento of the year, containing within its pages many pleasant memories, now and in years to come.



Mr. Olen Smrcka

Dedication

To our friend, confidant and adviser,

We have demanded much from you in time and patience,

When we needed a helping hand you were always ready with a word of encouragement,

We consider it

our good fortune to have been students in your classroom, and it is with deep felt gratitude and devotion that we dedicate to you, this, our 1964 annual.

Our Superintendent

Joe Gray

New in '58, but now a familiar face around P.R.H.S. This familiar personality of Joe L. Gray, Superintendent of Plainville High for the past six years. A graduate of Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kansas, Mr. Gray's majors were in physical education and educational administration. He earned his bachelors and masters degrees at Pittsburg State.

Mr. Gray's activities are sports, and his favorite sport is football. Mr. Gray was a member of the Pittsburg Gorillas, and lettered two years at end.

Our Principal

Al Hargrave

The move from sidelines to hall ways failed to dim the personality of our new principal, Mr. Al Hargrave. Having been promoted from the ranks of football coach and history teacher to the vacant principals chair, Mr. Hargrave has measured up to everything expected of an understanding and congenial guiding hand to the student body of PRHS.

Mr. Hargrave received his A.B. degree from Kansas Wesleyan and his M.A. from Fort Hays State.

Board Of Education

The Plainville Rural High is under the direction of five board members, all of whom give generously of their time and judgment in order that the school may operate more efficiently.

They have regular scheduled business meetings the second Monday of each month, and attend many specially called meetings.

Some of the main functions are signing teachers checks, acting as parole board and approving the budget. These are just a few of the many functions.

The members of the board, which we sincerely thank are; Mr. Bert Taylor, Mr. William Eckart, Mr. Victor Ordway, Mr. Leroy Harrison, Mr. Henry Ott.

Mrs. Lyon

Now she's here, now she isn't . . . at least only part time. Serving as secretary to Mr. Harry Murray at the junior high during the morning hours and to Mr. Al Hargrave during the afternoon never seems to erase the feeling that Mrs. Doris Lyon belongs to us. There is never any doubt as to the time of day when her voice comes over the loud speaker sixth hour.

Coming to school and preparing meals each day is the job of Mrs. Elmo Hamblet and her staff of seven cooks. Four women are on the parttime list. Helping Mrs. Hamblet cook the meals each day are Mrs. Thelma DeForest, Mrs. Minnie Marcotte, Mrs. Gayle Schrock, and Mrs. Margaret Hachmeister. When the time to serve and clean up, Mrs. Betty Mock, Mrs. Dollie Axelson, and Mrs. Gladys Goble arrive to help the full-time cooks. To these women go the credit for all the hot meals served to you of PRHS at such a cheap price.

COOKS

BUS DRIVERS

Arising early each morning and taking their cold buses out for their daily rounds was the job of the four PRHS bus drivers. They were the ones responsible for warming up the seats of the buses and getting the students who rode buses to school on time. LEFT TO RIGHT, they are Mr. Lawrence Hachmeister, Bob Laughlin, Stanley Richmond, Emery Ekey, Max Glendening (NOT PICTURED).

"Scotty" Riedell, custodian at PRHS since the new building was moved into in 1952, has been a loyal worker for many years.

No one contributes more toward making our school life more pleasant. His first concern is the comfort and safety of students. He performs hundreds of tasks from that of fixing lockers to keeping PRHS clean and sparkling everyday.

There are 87 rooms, counting smallest closet to largest classroom, which has to be cleaned at the close of each school day. On weekends "Scotty" gives special attention to putting that extra touch on things.

Wherever you see "Scotty" he always has a friendly smile and "Hello" to greet you. This man, dedicated to his work is willing to go out of his way to help you.

To "Scotty" the senior class of '64 would like to express a special "Thanks" for being such a great friend to us for the past four years.

Every evening after a long school day has ended these faces are seen skitting around the halls. These boys, Charles Wyant, Jim Younie, and Tom Cussen, are faithful co-workers of the custodian "Scotty." You should all appreciate the work these boys put forth to keep our school neat and clean. Speaking for the student body, "We Thank You."

Class

Mrs. Klish wants to know if all is hopeless as she tries to help Frosh. in her Home Ec I. class.

Sing along with 'Mary Kay.'

Maria Rolfe is quite puzzled as Barbara Horton looks on.

Mr. Schminke leads while the Band plays on.

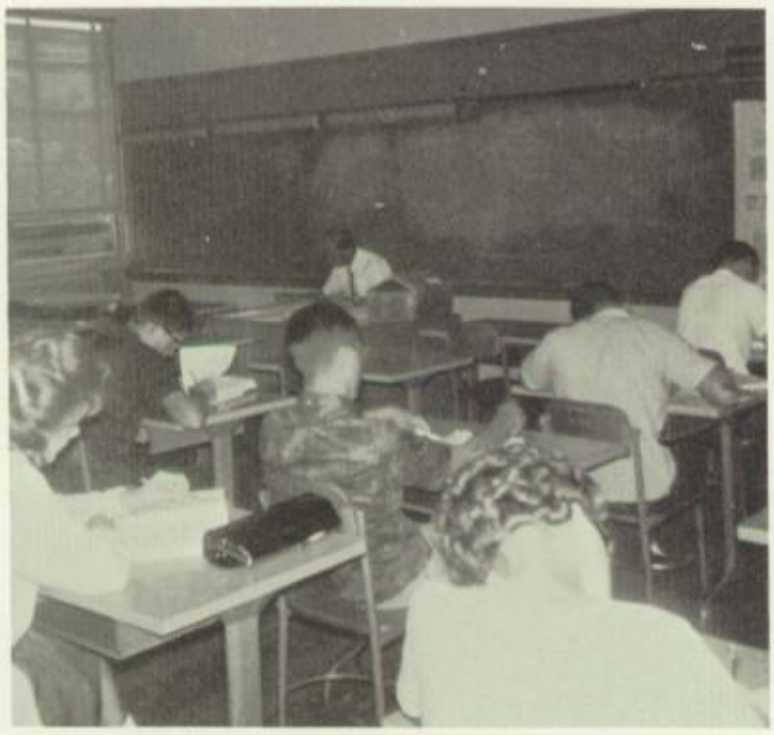
Charlene Wilhelm and Terry Linder work on trying to get all jobs in on time for Mrs. Reh.

Roger Taylor and Denny Hendren seem to sense something is up.

Scenes

Mr. Hachmiester explains the FFA system.

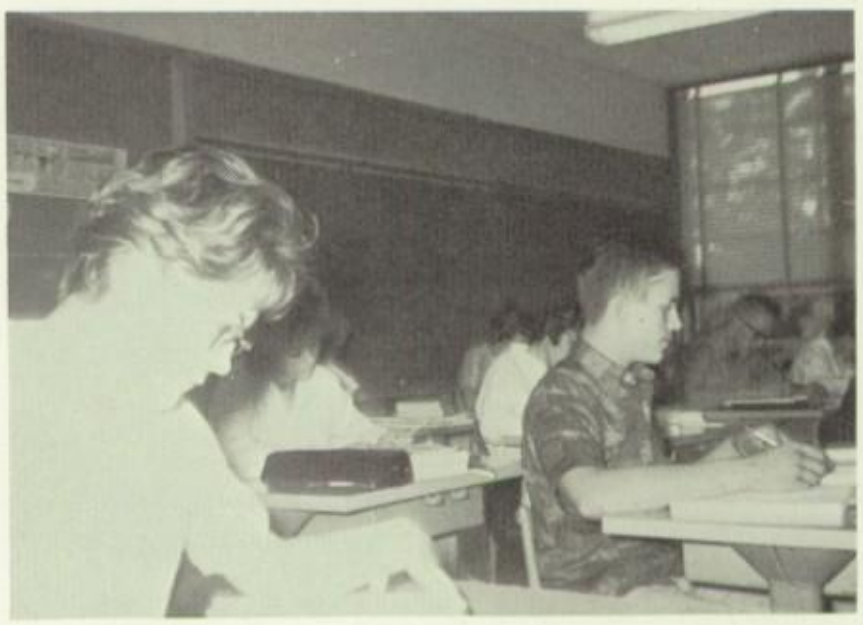
By the looks of the students in class, Bookkeeping must prove to be an interesting subject.



By the looks of John Kern in the process of exercising seems to be doing it with ease.

What ever Mr. Parker is doing Mike Kriley seems to be quite baffled.

Cathy Cussen and Nancy Beckley demonstrates their acting skills in Frosh speech class.



Activity period is no play time for Cheryl Marcotte.

Industrious students keep busy. . . . . .

Only boys who have earned letters in athletic programs are eligible to dwell here. The club members were entertained at the University of Wichita on November 30, when they saw an afternoon football game and a night basketball game.

The members also sponsored a sock hop after a home basketball game, and gave $150.00 to help pay for the new glass backboards in the gymnasium this year.

Also a yearly affair, the club members, the male members of the faculty, and the people who directly helped in the P.R.H.S. athletic programs, held a chicken dinner during the second semester.

The club sponsors the annual battle of the sexes during the second semester of school.

Beware . . . of Willie and his weapon. The weapon, new this year, was originated by co-sponsor John Battatori. Besides keeping order, the pair collect dues and fines. Penalities for talking without permission or being late are 10¢ or two heated swats with the new born paddle.

Future Hom

Mrs. Barbara Klish, FHA sponsor, Sue Mayhew, President, and Mary Page, Vice-President put the FHA wheel together.

The FHA of PRHS has much to offer a girl who is interested. A Watermelon Feed kicked off the '63-'64 school year to be followed by a style show and a carol sing at Christmastime. The District B meeting was held at Great Bend this year. A panel on "Your and Your Values gave some new thoughts to some of the girls and the State Meeting at Topeka in March was a thrill for all who went. Something new in PRHS history, an FHA week. was held in April.

For their money-making projects this year, the girls sold pens and cook books. They also sponsored the annual Sweetheart Ball, a gala event on February 15.

Working on their degrees and trying to accumulate enough points to enable them to go on the Topeka trip kept the Future Homemakers busy during the year. So, as the '63-'64 year comes to a close, the FHA can certainly say it has had a busy and prosperous year.

National Honor Society

New Members: Terry Williams, Chris Pederson, Mike Hofer, Patty Thummel, Jack Horner, Sue Mayhew, Tom Becker, Randi Miller, Rod Smrcka, Sondra Glick, Rodger Taylor, and Bette Cool.

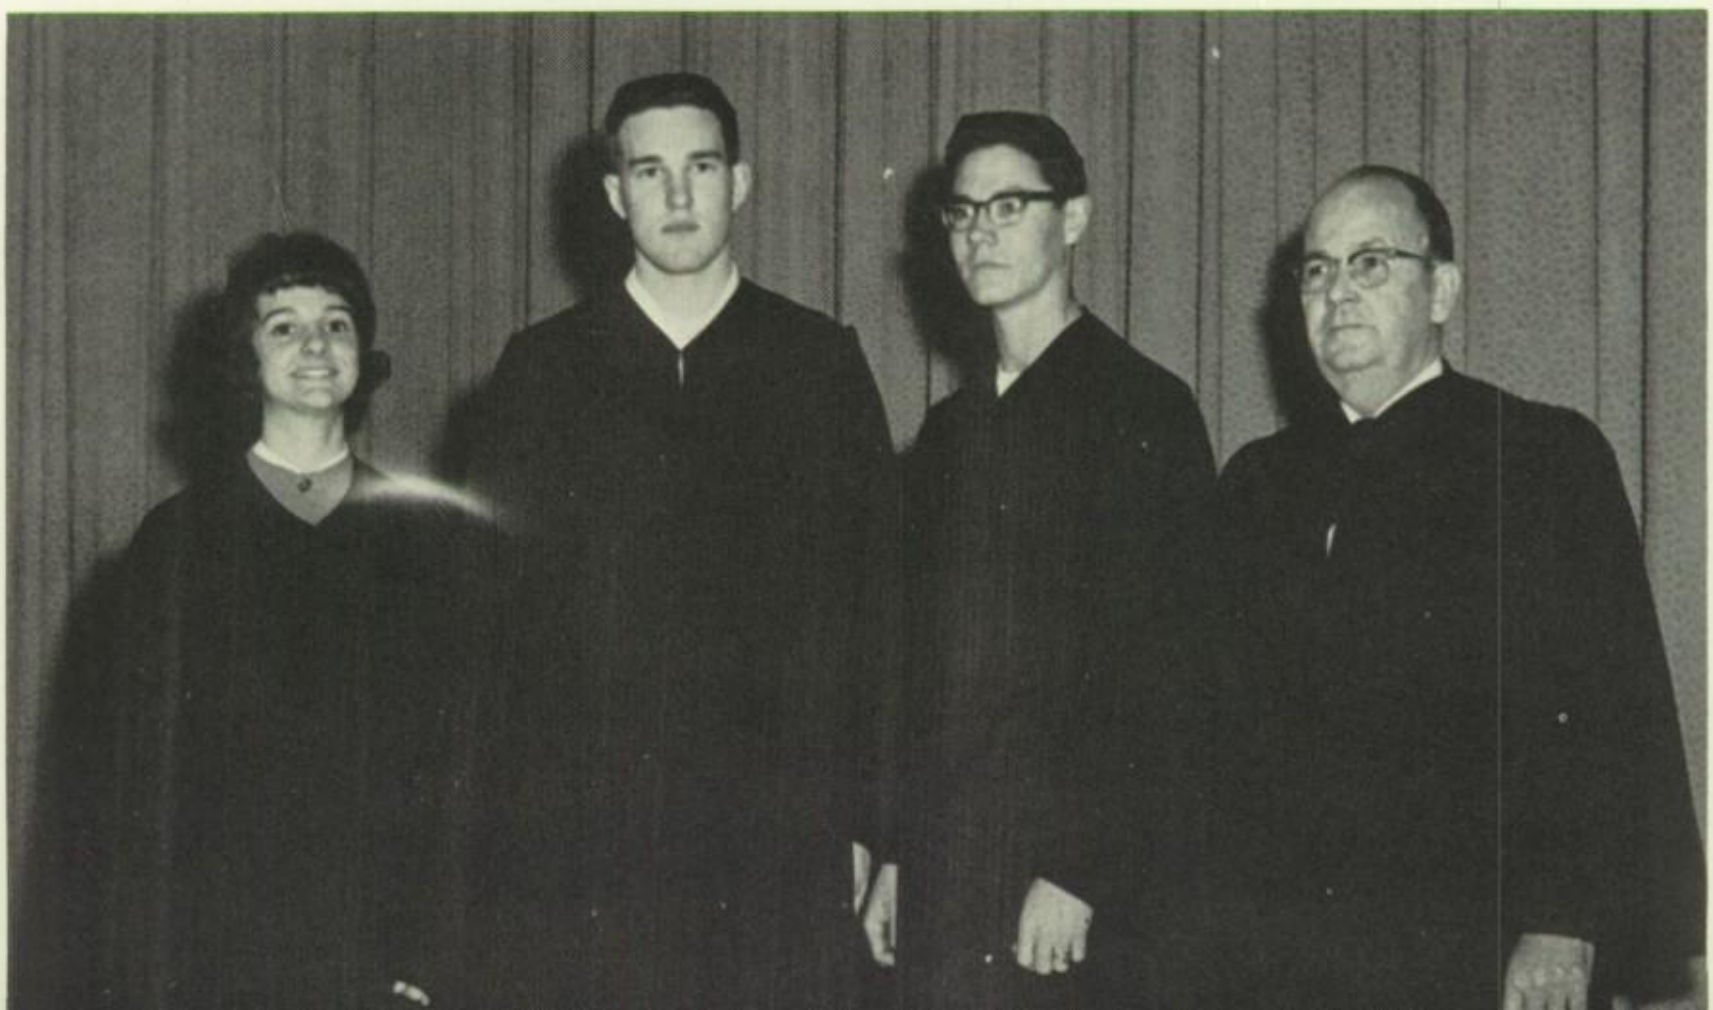
The PRHS chapter of the National Honor Society conferred honorary membership upon nine seniors and three juniors in a ceremony presented during sixth hour March 5, 1964.

The goal of the National Honor Society is to recognize outstanding juniors and seniors in the fields of scholarship, leadership, character and service to the school.

Students eligible for membership must be in the upper third of their class and active in school events.

The number initiated into the organization is based upon a percentage. Fifteen percent of the senior class and five percent of the junior class are eligible as long as their grades are of an A or B average.

Old Members: Madge Stalnaker, Kent Stamper, Larry Black, and Sponsor, Mr. Williams.



Males Prevail

The most honorable kiss is bestowed . . .

'Superior Males', Mike Hofer, Kent Stamper, Jon Rupp, and Ken Rempe represent all males as they proudly hold the 'superior' trophy . . .

Following in the footsteps of their predecessors, the '64 P.R.H.S. "male" reigns supreme for the fifth time out of seven years of this battle.

The male attack, spearheaded by senior Kent Stamper, junior Mike Hofer, sophomore Jon Rupp, and freshman Kenneth Rempe, tumbled the female challengers, senior Madge Stalnaker, junior Mary Evans, sophomore Deanna Beal and freshman Anita Moeder, in the annual Battle of the Sexes. HAIL THE VICTORIOUS MALES OF 1964.

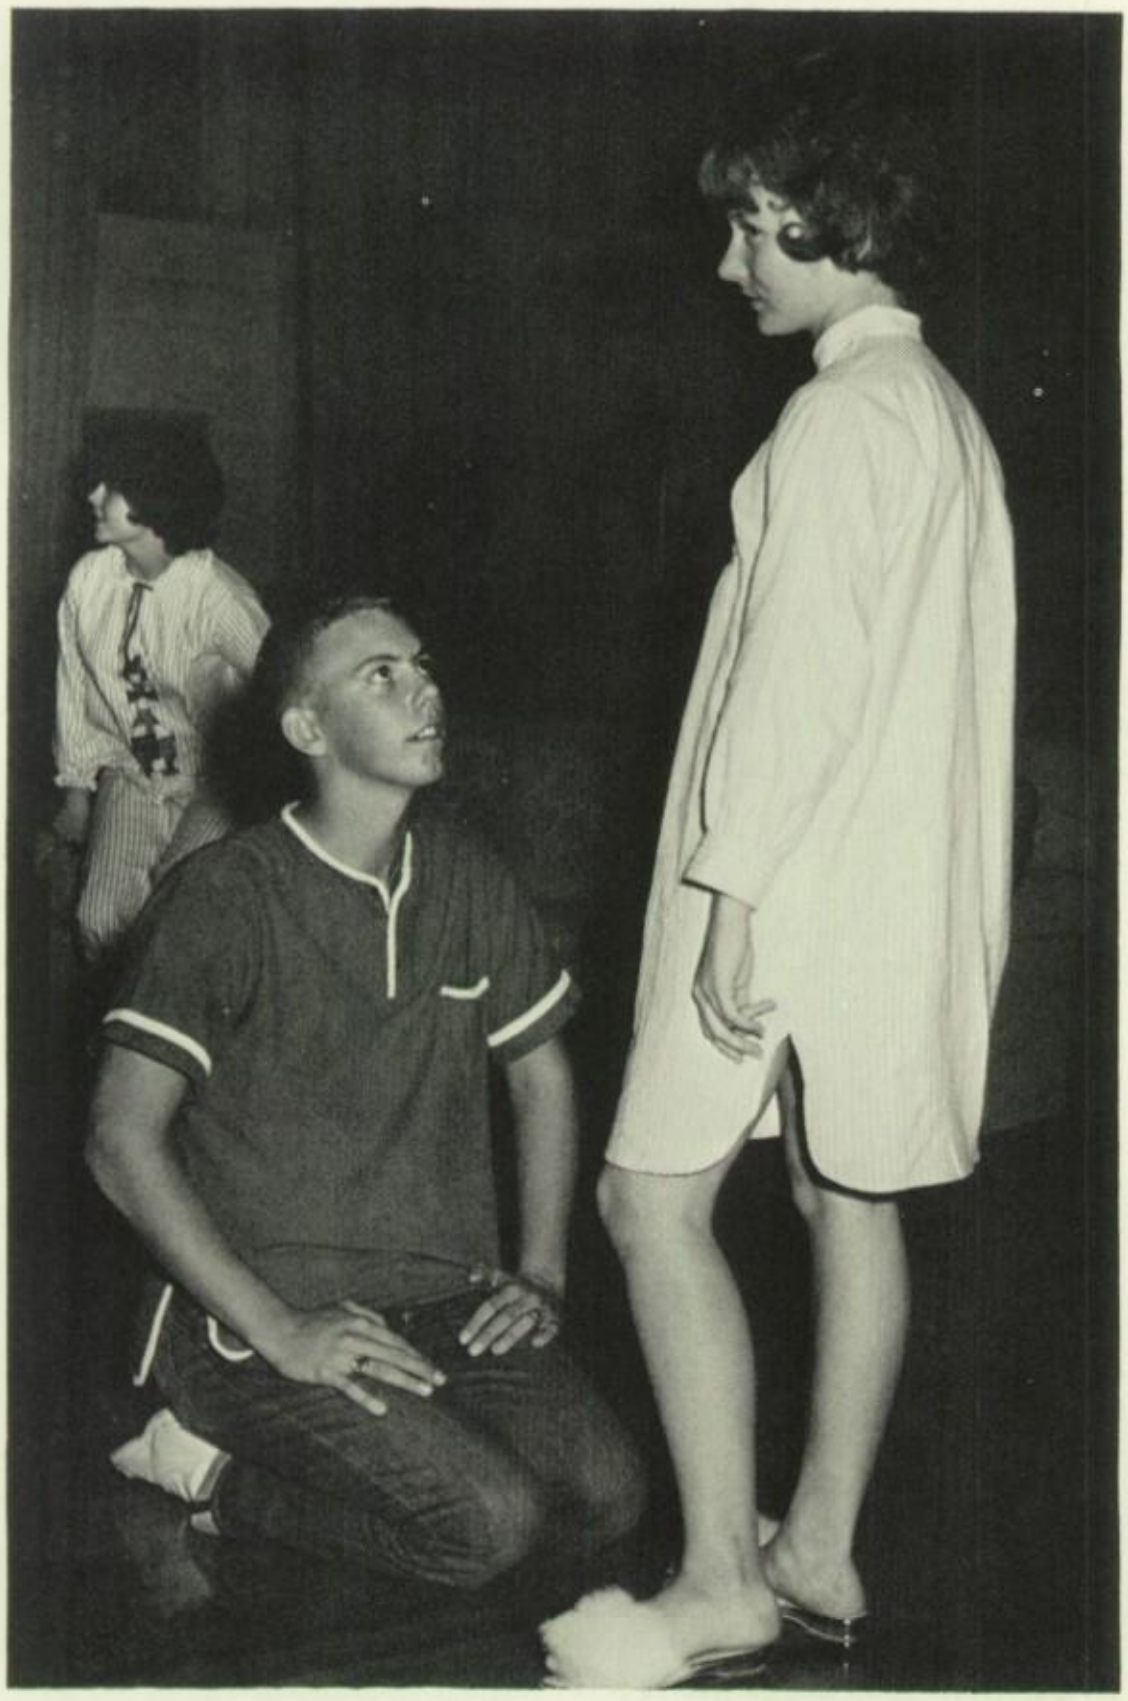
"No Boys Allowed"

No boys allowed at this all-girl slumber party given by Rita Baxter. Rita was through with Fred absolutely—especially when she saw him kiss that blonde good-by at the air-port. Of course, Fred claimed it was only his cousin, but blondes like that are nobody's cousin! Then Fred broke in on Rita's slumber party and pleads with her to take him back. When Rita asked Keith and Harvey to guard the girls against any further intrusion, bedlam took over, then the boys decided to steal the eats and place the blame on Fred and his pal. From then on it was one mad happening after another, from the Midnight Prowler to Victrola the cook, who quit every five minutes. Each one of the characters filled the audience with loads of laughter and fun.



You've got to listen, Rita! We've got to get things straightened out.

THE CAST

Kenny Harris—Mr. Midnight, a prowler; tall, catlike with quick stealthy movement.

Pat Ashley—Rita Baxter, giving a slumber party; pert, attractive young lady.

Mary Ann Longnecker—Jane Baxter, her younger sister, something of a pest.

Pam Weir—Victrola, the Baxter cook, who waddles rather than walks.

Drew Anderson—Fred Dana, in bad with Rita and Somewhat confused.

Denis Modder—Leroy Doyle, Fred's pal very loyal.

Carol Windholz—Edwina Cook, Rita's best friend, attractive and straight forward.

Mary Page—Belinda Elliot, Rita's rival, a real chatter box.

Marie Rolfe—Nada Owens, a boy-hater, tall and graceful.

Kathy Kaltenbach—Patsy Farrell, who loves to eat.

Clarence Gilbert—Harvey Smith, Keith's man, who complains a lot.

Jack Horner—O'Brien, an officer of the law with a slight Irish tongue.

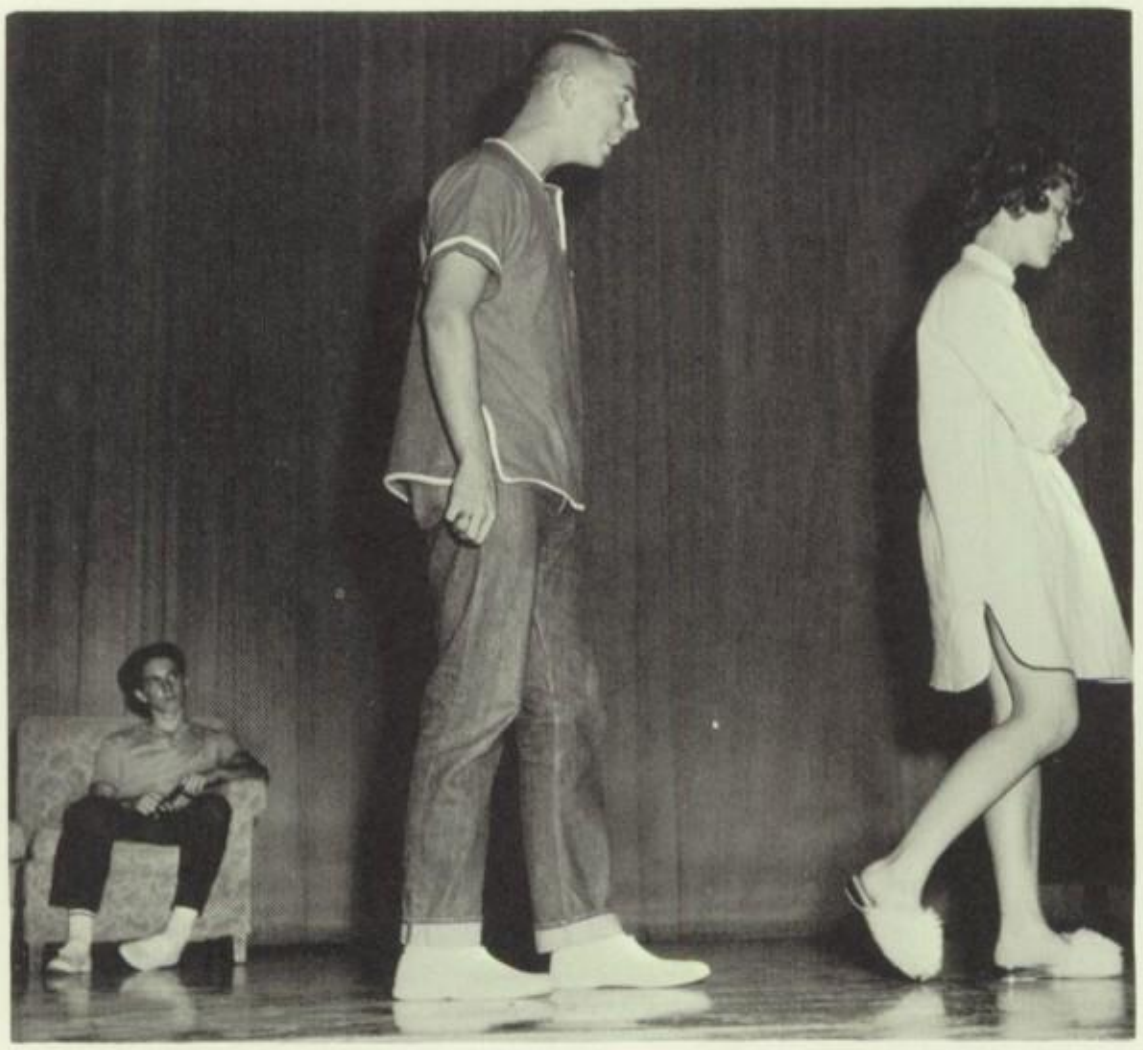
Earl Kuhn—Keith Garland, Fred's rival, who is good-looking.

Mary Evans—Mrs. Dana, Fred's mother.

Class of'65 Present Comedy

Fred (Drew Anderson) joins a slumber party in the play "No Boys Allowed."

This is play practice?



If you'll only let me explain. I told you she's my cousin Harriet.

"It's Great To Be Crazy"

Probably no people in history have had anything to contend with like a certain couple named Maxwell. Granted, the pioneers had Indians to enliven their days, and the Martins had the 'Coys to keep them alert. But the Maxwell's have Wilbur, Connie and Betty Lou to bring them year-round offspring fever. Need we say more? Their latest nonsensical gauntlet of mis-adventures starts when fifteen-year-old Betty Lou has a poem printed in the school paper. Since grandmother Maxwell's maiden name was Barrett, Betty Lou just knew she was a descendant of Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Betty Lou and Bernadine write to a firm to have the family tree traced. The trouble comes when the letter is intercepted by Mr. Maxwell, instead of the two girls.

Linda Ordway—Betty Lou Maxwell, aspires to be a great dramatic writer.

Judy Marcotte—Bernadine, Betty Lou's best friend.

Sue Mayhew—Connie Maxwell, a freshman in college.

Terry Williams—Wilbur Maxwell, ambitious type, and in and out of one thing after another.

Glenda Schrock—mother, Mrs. Maxwell.

Perry Comeau—Hercules Nelson, Wilbur's bosom pal.

Cheryl Marcotte—Aunt Mary

Tom Becker—father, Mr. Maxwell.

Bette Cool—Mrs. Jennings, A friend of Mrs. Maxwell.

Kent Stamper—J. C. Mallory, Mr. Maxwell's boss.

Jerry Comeau—Grover Jennings, Connie's boyfriend.

Rod Smrcka—Louie, a little chap with high aspirations but a very low I.Q.

Chris Pederson—Gertrude, Louie's wife and partner in crime.

Sondra Glick—Gladys, the maid.

Jeanie Fickel—Clara Smith, middle-aged police woman.

A "Lineman of the Week," an honorable mention as "Team of the Week," a tri-championship in the MCL, six of the eleven first team all league selections and various all-area honors, highlight the 1963 football season at PRHS.

Under the guidance of John Battitori, in his first year at PRHS, the Cardinals, after losing their first two games, fought back for six straight victories and a share of the MCL crown. The "B" Cards, also coached by a newcomer to PRHS, Paul Engborg, finished the season undefeated in six games.

Statisticwise, the Cardinals nearly doubled their opponents' output in yards gained rushing and passing, and almost tripled it in points scored. The Big Red outscored the opposition 179 to 63. In the first down department, the Cards picked up 91 compared to 64 for their opponents. The opposition completed 21 of 69 passes for 239 yards while picking off 7 Big Red attempts. However, the Cards connected on 25 of 61 for 592 yards while hauling 11 enemy passes. On the ground, the Cards outgained their opponents 1974 to 1094 yards. This gave the Big Red average of 246.8 a game on the ground, 74.0 in the air which is a total of 320.8 yards a game. This is compared to their opponents' average of 136.8 yards a game on the ground and 29.9 yards in the air for a total of 166.7 yards a game.

On the ground, the Cards were led by Senior halfback Jerry Comeau who carried 77 times for 909 yards which is an average of 11.8 yards a carry! Terry Williams sparked the passing attack by completing 21 of 45 attempts for 3 touchdowns. Jerry Comeau also had a hand in the passing by completing three of eight, with all three passes going for touchdowns.

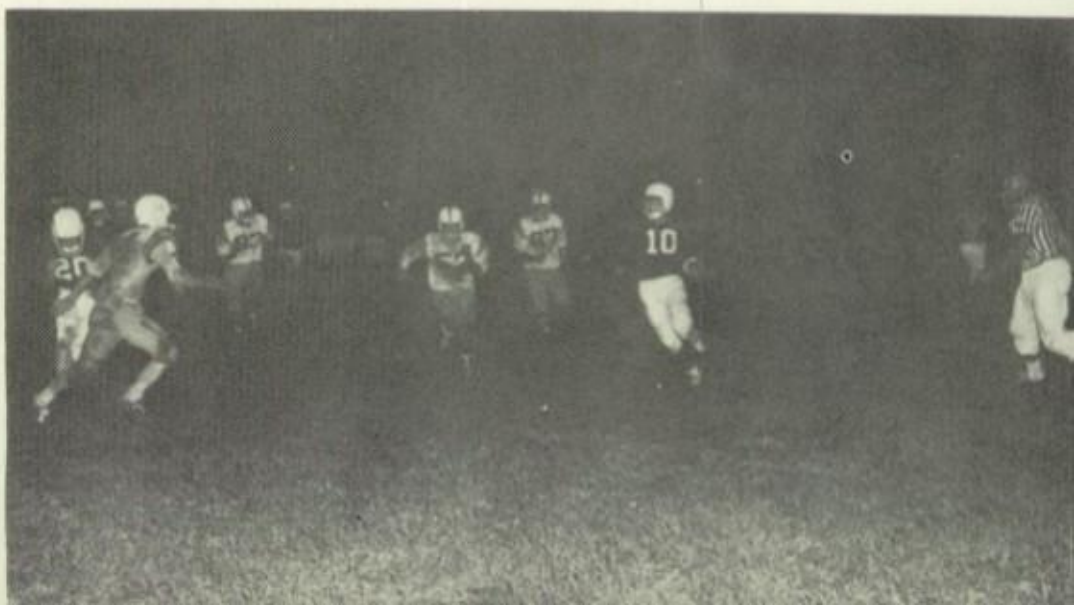
Terry Williams (10) plays cat and mouse with an unidentified Hill City player.



Williams (10) again, this time he sweeps left end against Phillipsburg.

Returning Letterman

. . . . . Backbone Of Squad

Few lettermen with many hopefuls. That's the story of the Card tennis hopes for '64.

Led by Captain Alice Beckley, lettermen Virginia Demanett, and Charlene Wilhelm, the netsters have four meets and a tourney in which to show their stuff.

Other Card hopefuls are Renee Hasse, Phyllis Barta, Deanna Beal, and Mary Ann Longnecker.

Instructor Sarah Prose says that the lack of courts has put their backs to the wall, but the other teams must also face the indoor courts when they journey to Cardinal land.

1964 Speech Festival

Winning two one's, 9 two's and one three was enough to bring the winners trophy home.

Herbie's First Date proves to be quite a problem for Herbie (Scotty Stien) and Judy (Suzie Weir).

When mother (Chris Pederson) upsets the trick Kay (Diane Harrison) and Peggy (Paula Ott) had planned, the girls heavily lose their dates with Dick (Dennis Harrison) and Jack (Jerry Comeau). But with mother's help the problems are solved.

Taking readings to the Speech Festival were Judy Marcotte, Mary Ann Longnecker and Marie Rolfe. Taking Prose was Chris Pederson, and in the Poetry division was Pat Ashley. Mary Page and Virginia Bedore gave orations, Linda Weisner and Donna Hall, information speeches and Tom Spruill and Mary Evans, Extempore Speeches.

Linda Ordway was announcer and prompter for the one act play. Mr. N. J. Schumacher, speech director, sponsored this group.

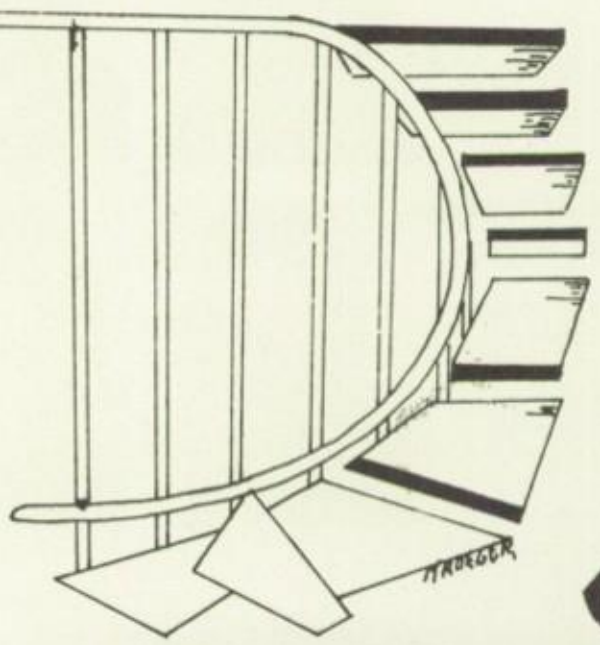
CLASS OF 67



These 80 greenies have climbed up one-fourth of the ladder of success. Three-fourths still remain.

The first few weeks they wandered around as though they didn't know what was right or wrong for a frosh. But the class of '67 soon fit in to daily routines and activities.

Being full-pledged members of PRHS gives them many varied interests and a completely new routine from that of jr. high.

The step these freshmen took was the first of four important building blocks to a successful future as an individual striving for his desired place in our world.

The amount of time they spend "cracking the books" and time they give to extra-curricular activities are sure to grant them great rewards.

This was a big year for the class of '67, and an even bigger year will face them as they become the sophomores of PRHS.

As the lights were dimmed and the stage lit up, the student body of P.R.H.S. entered Red Gulch, "The cleanest town in the West." Being of the good humored nature, it was termed quite a success. The freshman Speech class presented the one-act play under the direction of Mr. Schumacher, on October 30.

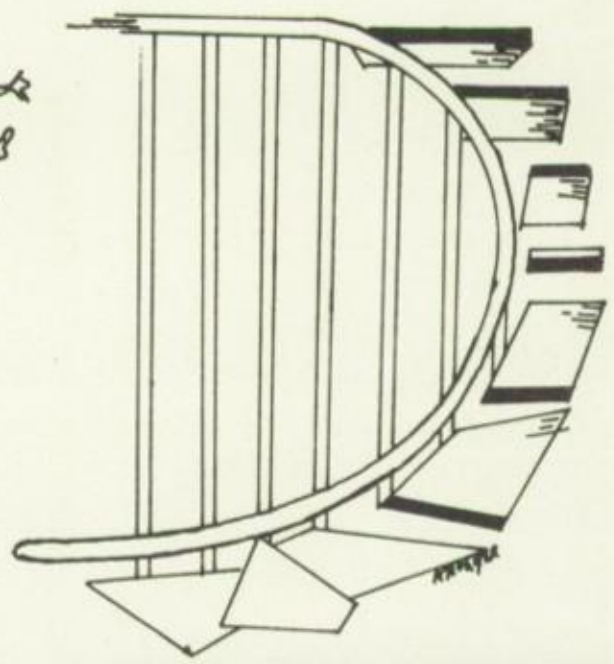
Members of the cast were: Keith Unrein as Crash Crackdown, sheriff of Red Gulch; Sam Karst as Fizzy Higgins, soda bartender at the Red Gulch Hotel; Sheri Cowser as Delilah Allure, hostess at the Red Gulch Hotel; Whitey Kuhn as Cactus Pete, the stagecoach driver; Leah Moran as Cynthia Nylon, clerk in the general store; Marc Mock as Wildcat Saddlesore, deputy sheriff; David Fuzzell as Laranie Luke, a tall stranger; Kathy Cussen as Dude Rascal, a short stranger; Karol Edson as Ma Jitters, head of the Wells Fargo office in Red Gulch.

Dude Rascal (Cathy), courts vivacious Delilah Allure played by Sheri Cowser.

"DUDE" takes a breather during rehearsal.

President of the Sophomore Class is center Tom Harris, Vice Pres. Leta Krob, Sec. Treas. Paula Ott, Stuco Rep. Tom Cussen and Cindy Hammonds.

CLASS OF 66



The 60 members of the class of '66 have now reached the half-way mark on their stairway to graduation. They are no longer green frosh, but they are not considered upper classmen either.

Not being new any more and not being classified as upperclassmen leaves the in-between sophomores only their studies and wishes for the future.

The sophomores are not completely left out of the honorary activities of PRHS though. Because near the end of this year the sophomores had the pleasure of ordering their class rings which will be received during the fall of their junior year. Also some of the sophomores were lucky enough to serve the junior-senior banquet.

Although the anxious members of the class of '66 feel they are being left out of the events which will now take place were well worth waiting for.

Class Sponsors are Mr. H. Lais and Mr. J. Russell.

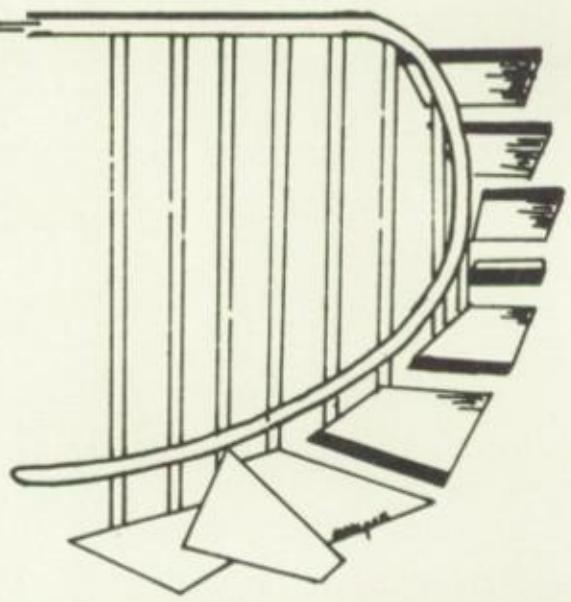
CLASS OF 65



Hitting the three-quarter mark on our stairway of success are the members of the 1963-64 junior class. These students have taken an active part in the many activities of PRHS.

As they gained entrance into their third year at PRHS, they found many new experiences and activities. There was the junior play, "No Boys Allowed," the magazine sales, their car wash, and the annual junior-senior prom. With these events they finally got into the big swing of upper class activities.

In the Class of '65 consisting of 41 boys and 25 girls, boys offer a continuous scholastic challenge to the girls, as they dominate the honor roll each six weeks.

Next year as seniors, the Class of '65 will find many more new experiences and will face even more responsibilities for it will be the busiest year of their high school career.

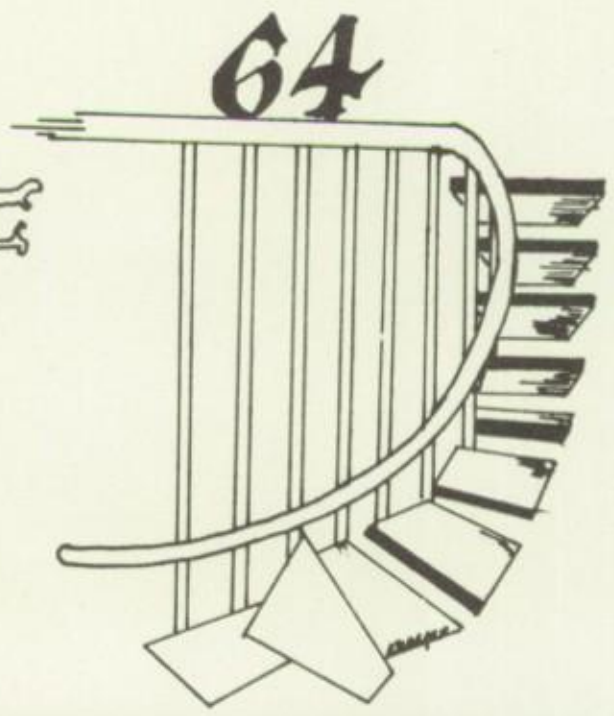
CLASS OF 64



Here, at the top of the stairs, we find the Class of 1964. As Seniors, they have been the leaders in PRHS this year. They have carried a share of the responsibility of seeing that the school runs smoothly, that school spirit is strong, and that the reputation of the school is good and true.

In scholastic and athletic abilities this class has proved themselves outstanding. Competition between boys and girls has been great for the past four years.

Selling Christmas wrappings in '62, the magazine sale and Jr. play in '63, and the Sr. play in '64 have made this class a wealthy group. These Seniors made possible the new glass backboards now seen in the gymn.

Have courage, Seniors, as you graduate on May 27, 1964, for then you must return to the last step on the stairs, but with desire and a will to work you will find yourself near the top soon again.

Senior sponsors Mr. Unruh, Mr. Ong, and Mr. Engborg.

Seniors read through play before tryouts in 'It's Great To Be Crazy.'

Look, Goitrude. How many years have I been 'quainted with you, and versie vicie?

Senior FHA'ers sell tickets at the annual Sweetheart Ball . . .

This was a typical scene in most American government classes . . . some were confused, some were ready to debate the subject, some were agreeable, but everybody had at least one good laugh a day . . .

"Did you get it, John?", asked Mrs. Maxwell (Glenda Schrock) Yes, he got the contract and five thousand dollars.

Honor
